

Timo Parvela and Virpi Talvitie

in conversation with
Nicolette Jones

Friday 24th November

1.30pm

Europe House, London SW1P 3EU

Finnish Timo Parvela, author of Bicycling to the Moon and illustrator Virpi Talvitie, one of Finland's most prestigious illustrators, will be talking about their book to Nicolette Jones, children's editor of the Sunday Times.

Bicycling to the Moon has two characters who live together; a dreamy poet cat and a practical dog, who fight – like cat and dog! But they always make up, and children will love their spats. Made into a TV show in Finland, Bicycling to the Moon is a bit like a marriage guide; how two very different characters manage to live together happily.

Suitable for children in Years 3, 4 and 5
